Dear <<First Name>> <<Last Name>>,

We are writing to inform you of a data security incident experienced by Southland Holdings LLC ("Southland") that may have involved your personal information. Please read carefully, as this letter contains background information about the incident, the type of information involved, and steps you can take to protect your personal information.

What Happened: On September 21, 2021, Southland discovered potential unauthorized access to our environment. Upon discovery, we took immediate steps to secure our systems prior to restoration. In addition, we retained outside cybersecurity experts to conduct an investigation to determine the source and scope of the incident. Based on the findings from the investigation, we reviewed the affected systems to determine whether personal information was impacted as a result of the incident. Once it was confirmed that data containing personal information was potentially accessed as a result of the incident, an in-depth and thorough review of the data was undertaken to identify the individuals to whom the information pertained. On February 11, 2022, we determined that the affected systems contained some of your personal information.

What Information Was Involved: The information involved may have included your name, address, Social Security number, and driver's license or state identification number.

What We Are Doing: As soon as we learned of the incident, we immediately began containment, mitigation, and restoration efforts. We also launched an investigation and engaged outside cybersecurity experts to assist us in determining what happened. As part of the response processes, we implemented additional security measures to further harden our digital environment in an effort to prevent a similar event from occurring in the future. In addition, we reported the incident to the Federal Bureau of Investigation and are committed to providing the FBI and law enforcement whatever assistance is needed.

Furthermore, even though there is no evidence of misuse of information involved in this incident, we are providing you with information about steps that you can take to help protect your personal information. Additionally, as an added precaution, we are offering you <<12/24 Months>> of identity theft protection services through IDX, a data breach and recovery services expert. Steps You Can Take to Protect Your Personal Information

Review Your Account Statements and Notify Law Enforcement of Suspicious Activity: As a precautionary measure, we recommend that you remain vigilant by reviewing your account statements and credit reports closely. If you detect any suspicious activity on an account, you should promptly notify the financial institution or company with which the account is maintained. You also should promptly report any fraudulent activity or any suspected incidence of identity theft to proper law enforcement authorities, your state attorney general, and/or the Federal Trade Commission (FTC).

Copy of Credit Report: You may obtain a free copy of your credit report from each of the three major credit reporting agencies once every 12 months by visiting <http://www.annualcreditreport.com/>, calling toll-free 1-877-322-8228, or by completing an Annual Credit Report Request Form and mailing it to Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA 30348. You also can contact one of the following three national credit reporting agencies:

Equifax

P.O. Box 105851
Atlanta, GA 30348
1-800-525-6285
www.equifax.com

Experian

TransUnion

Fraud Alert: You may want to consider placing a fraud alert on your credit report. An initial fraud alert is free and will stay on your credit file for at least one year. The alert informs creditors of possible fraudulent activity within your report and requests that the creditor contact you prior to establishing any accounts in your name. To place a fraud alert on your credit report, contact any of the three credit reporting agencies identified above. Additional information is available at <http://www.annualcreditreport.com>.

Security Freeze: You have the right to put a security freeze on your credit file for up to one year at no cost. This will prevent new credit from being opened in your name without the use of a PIN number that is issued to you when you initiate the freeze. A security freeze is designed to prevent potential creditors from accessing your credit report without your consent. As a result, using a security freeze may interfere with or delay your ability to obtain credit. You must separately place a security freeze on your credit file with each credit reporting agency. In order to place a security freeze, you may be required to provide the consumer reporting agency with information that identifies you including your full name, Social Security number, date of birth, current and previous addresses, a copy of your state-issued identification card, and a recent utility bill, bank statement or insurance statement.

Additional Free Resources: You can obtain information from the consumer reporting agencies, the FTC, or from your respective state Attorney General about fraud alerts, security freezes, and steps you can take toward preventing identity theft. You may report suspected identity theft to local law enforcement, including to the FTC or to the Attorney General in your state.
